Dear Colleagues,

We would like to draw your attention to the fact that the Author Guidelines, featured in issue 19 of the Philologist journal, are amended in relation to the previous ones inasmuch as there are now more explicit explanations, in accordance with the recommendations of the Ministry for Scientific and Technological Development, Higher Education, and Information Society of the Republic of Srpska, as well as in accordance with the Rulebook on Publishing Scientific Publications (Official Gazette of the Republic of Srpska, issue 77/17, Articles 60 and 61), regarding the extent of usage of references, with renowned international and national journals taking up at least 80% of the share, while at least 50% of papers cited should be written in one of the UN-recognised world languages. Papers that do not meet at least one of the aforementioned criteria will not undergo the reviewing process.

In addition, we would like to inform you that each paper submitted will be checked for plagiarism and self-plagiarism by means of a software provided by the University of Banja Luka.

Yours respectfully,
Philologist Editorial Board
